

Kamil Maciaszek

Author of the GratoSfera Project (www.gratosfera.pl), introducing Free Play to primary schools in Poland. An advocate of free play and relaxation of the core curriculum.

Coordinator of Polish parts of international projects Erasmus+, CAPS (Children's Access to Play in Schools) and PAPPUS (Plants and Play Promoting Universal Skills). Passionate about outdoor education and all activities pulling children out of school buildings into the air.

Play-Leader, speech therapist, educator. Designer of the first in Poland GratoSfera - a place where children can play freely under the care of adults. Graduate of the University of Gdańsk. Educator and speech therapist in Gedania Kindergarten 1922 and alternative school creoSedania in Gdansk. Conducts classes for pre-school and school children from astronomy to microbiology with the use of recycling materials and is passionate about large-format projects. Privately, a lover of roller coasters and theme parks.